Ethics of Pro Bono WITH PHILADELPHIA VIP

Presenters: Joseph Sullivan, Pepper Hamilton LLP
& Sharon Browning, Just Listening Project

What are the ethical considerations in both the decision to do pro bono work and in the actual representation of clients? What are the consequences of this representation both for individual clients as well as for the legal system as a whole?

Presented in a lively and interactive format, this CLE course includes a discussion of Rule 6.1: Pro Bono Publico Service, the role of training in ethical representation, malpractice insurance, models for pro bono participation, and ethical considerations for volunteer attorneys.

Special considerations in the representation of low income clients will also be explored.
