

A project of Philadelphia VIP

February, 2008 Volunteer of the Month

Philadelphia VIP understands the everyday demands and time constraints that our volunteer attorneys face. We value all volunteers and recognize with this honor those who handle multiple VIP cases, dedicate numerous hours to complex matters and take on cases outside of their general practice area. Philadelphia VIP volunteers serve our clients with compassion and offer hope to those without. Philadelphia VIP is proud to recognize volunteers who are truly helping achieve access to justice for all.

This month Philadelphia VIP recognizes Stephen M. Foxman, a Member of the firm Eckert Seamans, for his outstanding volunteer services to Philadelphia VIP's LawWorks project. Please scroll down to read more about our February Volunteer of the Month. Congratulations, Stephen M. Foxman!

Steve is a strong supporter of VIP, especially through his service as a member and Treasurer of the LawWorks Steering Committee. LawWorks is Philadelphia VIP's community economic development project and matches transactional attorneys with the needs of Philadelphia's homeowners, nonprofits and microentrepreneurs. The LawWorks Steering Committee offers invaluable expertise and direction to VIP's LawWorks team and consists of both public interest and private bar members. Many Philadelphia Bar Association Sections are represented on the Steering Committee; Steve is the Business Law Section's representative to the Steering Committee as well as the chairman of the Section for 2008. Steve regularly offers his experience and contacts to assist LawWorks in tackling difficult case questions and policy issues that arise from clients' cases. He has also handled individual nonprofit and housing cases since 2002. Steve's two currently open cases include a quiet title case for a Spanish-speaking client and a contract matter for a nonprofit serving poor women with high risk pregnancies.

For his tremendous dedication, VIP gives our heartfelt thanks to Steve Foxman and recognizes him as VOLUNTEER OF THE MONTH.
